2017 JSSL Championship Meet

July 16, 2017

De Anza College

Twitter at Champs 2017

Once again, we will be offering a Twitter service to call swimmers to the Clerk of the Course. This is not a replacement for the traditional public address announcements.

Please follow @JSSLChamps on Twitter in order to receive the tweets: https://twitter.com/jsslchamps

You can configure the Twitter app so that it sends you a notification whenever @JSSLChamps tweets. See below for instructions.

Please continue to listen for the audio announcements.

To receive a notification from the Twitter app whenever @JSSLChamps tweets, do the following within the Twitter app on your mobile device:

1. Follow @JSSLChamps
2. Open your profile as follows: on the Twitter Home screen, if you see your profile icon "Me", then select it to go to your profile. If you don't see that icon, then in the Twitter "three dots" menu, select your username to open your profile
3. Select "Following" to see the list of accounts that you follow
4. Select "JSSL Champs"
5. Tap the star to turn on notifications for all tweets from @JSSLChamps. If you don't see a star, tap the gear icon and select "Turn on notifications"
